

2015-2016

Daniel and Lois Gray Memorial Scholarship

For students enrolled or accepted for matriculation at the University of Delaware and who intend to work in Delaware.

Eligible applicants include full-time undergraduate and graduate students majoring in special education, psychology, linguistics, or speech pathology, who have a special interest in people with autism spectrum disorder

(ASD) and a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0.

This $1,000 scholarship covers the 2015-16 academic year and will be awarded in the spring of 2015.

Financial need will be considered.

Complete this application, and email it to teresa.avery@delautism.org.

All applications must be received by February 15, 2015.

Name _____
Last First MI

Phone _____
Residence Cell

Campus address _____
Street City State Zip

If applicable, the college in which you are currently enrolled _____

Current grade point average _____

Period being applied for

- 2015-16
- Other _____

UD campus you attend/plan to attend

- Main campus, Newark
- Parallel program, Dover
- Parallel program, Georgetown
- Parallel program, Wilmington

Year of period applied for

- Sophomore
- Junior
- Senior
- Graduate

Major _____ Minor _____

Graduate degree _____ Expected graduation date _____

How many credits do you plan to take? Fall _____ Winter _____ Spring _____

Have you filed or will you file a free application for federal student aid (FAFSA)? Yes No

I hereby certify that the information submitted in this scholarship application is correct and factual.

Signature

Date

Also attach the following:

- A brief description of your career and personal goals and how this scholarship will enhance your efforts to either teach or work with individuals with ASD in Delaware. Please confine your answer to the field of autism.
- A list of your college activities and involvement in student organizations. Include community activities and honors received.
- A faculty recommendation plus an official school transcript.